PRIVACY STATEMENT (FERPA)

The purpose of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 is to assure all students, including those attending an institution of higher education, access to their educational records and to protect such individual's right to privacy by limiting the transferability of their records without their consent.

MTC has designated the following categories as "Directory Information," which may be released at the college's discretion: name, dates of attendance, and degrees and awards received. Information about academic progress may be shared between Muckleshoot Tribal College and partner institutions. Other non-directory information will not be released to the public and others who request it unless the college has a valid Information Release Form on file noting the record(s) to be released and to whom.
